"Without the past we never could have had the present."

The HARVEYAN staff presents herewith, for your approval and enjoyment, the 1960 HARVEYAN. This year we have made use of the wisdom of ancient China by adapting the traditional symbol for memories to serve as the theme for your journey through the past school year.

From the opening section, arrayed in golden color, to the final page of the newly adopted name index, the 1960 HARVEYAN is a pictorial record of every important event of the 1959-60 school year.

In the Administration-Faculty section you will meet the people who painstakingly guide our education with their time and advice.

In the Class section you will find the accomplishments of the Class of 1960 and the underclassmen who now assume the responsibility of the future years at Morris Harvey.

Continuing through Organizations and Traditions, you will find the "spice of life" that makes our extra-curricular activities so vital.

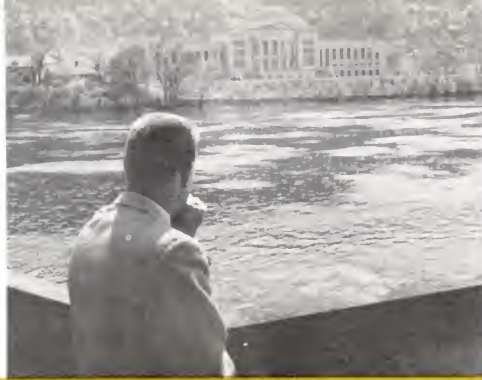

Finally, in the Athletic section, you will see the proud Golden Eagles and the people who cheer and guide them to victory.

We hope you will treasure the many memories that this book will provide you through the years to come.

The Editor

Dr. Leonard Riggleman

THE PRESIDENT

"Fifteen years ago the Kanawha River front, where this main building now stands, was covered with briars and brambles, with a spur track of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad running the entire length of it. At that time it was impossible for any of us to see clearly, even in dreams, what has since taken place.

This magnificent structure was not at that time on the drawing boards. It was a dim hope supported by faith in people and in the future. Little by little the briars and brambles disappeared, the railroad track was removed, and structures began to take shape and form.

For the past eight years they have been occupied by students, faculty, and administrative officers. Their corridors have been traversed by thousands and thousands of visitors until the entire plant has that "lived-in look." They house a sound educational program well rooted into the traditions of the past, surrounded by the warmth and love of the present and reaching out toward an expectant but great future.

If the tempo of progress for the past fifteen years can be maintained for the next twenty-five to thirty years, we could easily have here the greatest single enterprise in the great Kanawha Valley.

We have a firmer basis for our hope and a better undergirding for our faith for the years ahead than were possible in the immediate past."

Throughout the school year, the Student Council of the Student Government Association, is the pulse of the student body at Morris Harvey College.

During the summer, the members diligently prepared the Student Handbook which served as an excellent guide and information service for the freshmen and other new students.

This year, the Council again provided a highly successful Freshman Orientation program. Plans were completed before registration and everything began working smoothly the first week of school. Weekly assemblies were conducted to help acquaint the new students with the facilities and services of the college, and upper-class counselors helped enforce the freshman rules.

The Student Government Association also provides one of the most colorful events of the school year, as students campaign for the offices of the Student Council. This election is climaxed by the inauguration of the new President of the Council at the May Day Festival.

The Student Council also provides a highly diversified program of other activities, including: Homecoming; May Day; the traditional Christmas Formal, which is held in the Reception Hall; All-school Picnic, featuring the long awaited contest between the freshmen and the upperclassmen; Student Dances and Mixes; and Special Assemblies.

Last year, the Student Council initiated the compiling of a Student Directory, something that hasn't been provided by the Council in recent years.

With the interest and cooperation of the entire student body, the Student Council is one of the most active and productive organizations on the campus. Each member of the Council enjoys and seriously devotes time to providing good student government for Morris Harvey College.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The United Christian Fellowship was established at Morris Harvey College in 1958, growing out of a merger of the Roger Williams Fellowship, Wesley Fellowship, and Westminster Fellowship. The organization molded these groups with several others to form a united Christian force.

United Christian Fellowship is interdenominational and open to any student who is interested in the furtherance of God's Kingdom. The organization incorporates the high ideals of a Christian life and society, and seeks to promote closer harmony between the churches in the community and the students of Morris Harvey College.

The very name of the United Christian Fellowship signifies their ultimate goal—a group of unified Christians seeking a singular cause. Throughout the school year, the organization carries out their goal by participating in the weekly Chapel and Vesper services and members also assist in the activities of Religious Emphasis Week.

CHI RHO FELLOWSHIP

The Chi Rho Fellowship is an organization open to all students who are interested in Christian service, regardless of their denomination.

The Fellowship strives to develop and maintain an intimate relationship among their members in order that individual problems may be solved. The group also endeavors to co-operate with other religious organizations on campus in order to maintain a more Christian atmosphere for the students.

"Chi" and "Rho" are the first two letters of the Greek word for Christ. This is an appropriate choice for an organization dedicated to Christian living.

The organization deals with all phases of music teaching throughout the public schools and also seeks to deepen the bonds of understanding between those members who desire to become professional musicians.

Morris Harvey's chapter, organized in 1952, strives to broaden the outlook of the world of musical activity. The MENC works to increase the interest and knowledge in all areas of music education and aids in the preparation of professional musicians.

It is the hope of the MENC that its members will make worthy contributions to life through the aesthetic medium of music.

ART GUILD

It is the busy Art Guild that so frequently exhibits the paintings and prints that enhance the College Reception Hall.

Comprised of students who are not only interested in, but inspired by art, the Guild offers the opportunity of doing creative work as a recreational resource.

Throughout the school year, the Art Guild sponsors art exhibits in order to help promote interest in art on the campus and offers stimulation to the discussion of contemporary art.

Blackfriars' Production Of "Blithe Spirit" Given

By Jo Lambert

"I think I'm going into a trance," yells Madame Arcati, alias Clara Finch in the recent Blackfriar production of "Blithe Spirit."

Appearing in red jumper, red blouse and red legotards Clara Finch dazzles the scenery. With all her "gypsy like" splendor she threw herself marvelously into realistic trances. She did something which really proved her mettle. What?—While she was in her first trance Friday night, her dress tore in the back. When she got up she ad libbed for the accident perfectly. When leaving the scene she said, "Let's put our backs to the subject," which she gracefully did.

Till Curry as Charles Condomine threw himself wholeheartedly into the part. Charles' first wife Elvira (Pat Wood) had been dead 7 years. Five of those years he had been married to Ruth played by Nancy Lyons. As an author, Charles invited Madame Arcati to visit their home so he could pick up some of her slang. He also invited his good friends, Dr. and Mrs. Bradman, portrayed by John Holt and Millie Engle.

While at the Condomine home, Madame Arcati made contact with the other "side." Her medium, Daphne, informed Charles' first wife

McNally Speaks At SNEA Meeting

The December meeting of the S.N.E.A. was a great success. The group sang Christmas Carols, and Mr. John McNally of the English department read some very entertaining poetry. Everyone enjoyed the refreshments which were prepared by the officers of the club.

Miss Peggy King, the president, announced a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Irene Sawyer of the Education Department on Tuesday night, December 15. All S.N.E.A. members were invited.

Kiwanis Club of Charleston Forms 'Circle K' On Campus

The Kiwanis club of Charleston undertook a project recently which was to the advantage of Morris Harvey College. This project was the formation of a Circle K Club at Morris Harvey.

Many of you may be wondering what the Circle K Club is. Circle K Clubs are college-level men's service organizations performing the same functions on the college campus as do their sponsors — Kiwanis clubs — in the adult community. They are, in every sense of the word, service organizations — character building groups whose members are banded together to perform services to

THE COMET STAFF

The Comet, now a weekly publication, has the job of reporting all the news on the busy Morris Harvey Campus.

The staff members, on whose shoulders fall the task of tracking down all the news, give voluntarily of their time and effort in order to have a successful newspaper.

This year the position of editor, who must compile all the important items into front page headlines, is Shirley Ritz. But it is Richard Hill who must constantly balance the books so that all the interesting visitors and events can be recorded in pictures. Walter Wissing is the able "photographer on the scene" for the Comet.

THE HARVEYAN

Left: Dr. John Kinnaman, faculty advisor, and Ruth Legg, editor, discuss pictures before they are mailed to the publisher. In order to provide the best scenes around the campus, all pictures are carefully considered before a final decision is made.

Below: Mary Louros, assistant editor, and Denver Wilson, staff member, recheck copy before it is typed. Checking and rechecking to make sure all the names are correctly spelled and the pages numbered properly, insures the quality of the final product.

Early in September, the Harveyan staff began work, with one thing in mind . . . February 1st . . . deadline!

First came the important meeting with the publisher and the selection of the cover, the color scheme and the theme. The next problem was securing a photographer who was willing to take a multitude of pictures.

After three days of photographing groups and individuals, the exhausted staff drew a deep breath and relaxed. But soon a package appeared at the post office and they tackled the job of identifying pictures and typing copy.

By Christmas vacation, half of the copy had battled the mail to the publishing company. Now the end was in sight.

Once more the photographer was recalled to take a few final pictures. Then, with the lights burning late and several near heart failures, the deadline was met. The final page was proofed and the last package mailed. There was nothing left to do but suffer the pangs of anxiety until the first copy of the 1960 Harveyan would be unwrapped and proudly approved.

BLACKFRIARS

Calendar of Presentations

October 30, 1959	— "Mansions"
December 11 & 12, 1959	— "Blithe Spirit"
March 5, 1960	— Reg. High School Drama Festival
April 8 & 9, 1960	— "The Bat"
April 29, 1960	— "The Twelve-Pound Look"
May 6 & 7, 1960	— Intercollegiate Drama Festival

The Blackfriars began the season by welcoming their new director, Miss Virginia Pomroy, who skillfully guided the group through their most successful season at Morris Harvey.

The first step was the big move from the old workshop to the wonderful space in the abandoned cafeteria. After giving proper sacrifice to Dionysus and thanks to Dr. Riggelman the group rolled up its sleeves and began work on the set for Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit." While they were hammering, glueing, and painting, a one-act play, "Mansions" was given for an assembly program in October. "Blithe Spirit" went "on the boards" in December.

Rest was in order for a few short days and then preparations began for the Regional High School Drama Festival in March and the second major production, Mary Roberts Rinehart's "The Bat" was given in April.

To round out the year, Ruth Legg directed J. M. Barrie's "The Twelve-Pound Look" which the group entered in the State Intercollegiate Drama Tournament at Jackson's Mill, plus presenting the same play for a special assembly and again for the patrons of the West Virginia Creative Arts Program.

While participating in Blackfriars, students learn to work together in a situation that requires teamwork both on and off stage. Through this association, friendships are made that will last a lifetime.

INDEPENDENT STUDENTS' ASSN.

The Independent Students' Association was organized in the fall of 1955. The primary purpose of the ISA is to give the independent students on the Morris Harvey Campus the opportunity of voicing their ideas and opinions in an organization that has the ability and power to act. Membership in the ISA is open to any student not associated with another social organization.

Among the many and varied activities of the group are private parties, dances and studies of student problems. The ISA also names a Member of the Year at the Awards Assembly. Last year, Mary Comer received the honor.

ISA members are found working in many of the other organizations on campus, including, Student Council, Blackfriars, HARVEYAN staff, Comet staff and cheerleaders.

GREEK GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Greek Government Association, which serves as a coordinating body, helps promote the welfare of the social sororities and social fraternities of Morris Harvey College. It is one of the two most important student governing bodies.

Rules and the dates for rushing, bidding, and pledging by the seven Greek organizations are carefully planned by the GGA and the administration. The GGA also formulates a list of students eligible for membership in the sororities or fraternities.

In addition to sponsoring two dances each year, the Greek Government Association also gives an annual award to the Greek organization that has the highest scholastic average.

The membership of the GGA consists of two representatives from every sorority and fraternity, three faculty members and the President of the College.

Sigma's started the year with a very-much-alive mix to welcome the freshmen. For the Shipwreck Ball they dressed as if they had been shipwrecked and what a blast it was! They had two other mixes, several bake sales, a Christmas party, the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, Shamrock Dance, a picnic, a rush party, and a tea. One evening they had a party for the children at the Davis Child Shelter and the members aren't sure who enjoyed it the most.

This year on January 2, the Sigma Delta Phi Fraternity celebrated their tenth anniversary. During those ten short years the Sigma Deltas have gained the reputation of being one of the largest and most active fraternities on campus. It was organized here at Morris Harvey by a group of young men who desired to promote a closer bond among men students with higher educational ideals so that they might enter into a more intimate fellowship with those of the same desires.

Besides this main purpose the Sigma Deltas list as their objectives: to perpetuate friendship and intimate social ties within its membership, to foster college spirit, to encourage scholarship and to advance culture, and to lay the ground work for everlasting brotherhood and friendship.

Among the traditional functions of the Sigma Delta Phi Fraternity are the Welcome Dance, the Plymouth Rock Dance, the Christmas Formal, Sweetheart Weekend, and the Spring Swing.

Sigma Delt members are also active on campus in Student Council, Blackfriars, and the Greek Government Association.

Pre-School Conference

Morris Harvey faculty and student leaders spent the weekend before registration at the FFA-FHA Camp at Ripley, attending the annual Pre-School Conference.

Along with several serious discussions and interesting speeches, fun and fellowship prevailed for the two day conference.

Highlighting the weekend was the traditional faculty-student baseball game, with the students emerging the victors.

For all who attended, it was an enjoyable and enlightening weekend.

Freshman Orientation

For the Freshman, it was a maze of bean-ies, special assemblies, counselors with tickets and Court. When it was finally over, everyone looked back on the first six weeks of school as the most successful Orientation program ever presented by the Student Council.
